Prayer Breakfast - The Prayer Breakfast is this Thursday, May 4, 2017.

The speaker will be Ben Mathes, founder of the Rivers of the World, an organization that tackles critical needs of people living in unreached parts of the world and addresses the physical, emotional, and spiritual health in dozens of remote communities. The Prayer Breakfast will move to the Jackson Center at 6001 Moquin Drive NW. Parking will be free. See photo below.

Other events in the Great Alabama District, Division One -

Kiwanis Club of Scottsboro held their 29th Annual Pancake Breakfast last Saturday, Interclub chairman, Cecil Stokes reported the breakfast was a fine event and all attending enjoyed it. They had a good crowd in a nice school facility. Many Scottsboro Kiwanians expressed appreciation for our support. Lt. Governor (Alabama District, Division 1) Laura Crandall also attended with the KCoH team. She greeted local Key Club friends and conducted a lot of Key Club business.
